NORTH CAROLINA PSYCHOLOGY BOARD
Board Action
July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013

To date, during the fiscal year July 1, 2012 - June 30, 2013, the following action has been taken or confirmed by the North Carolina Psychology Board pursuant to G.S. § 90-270.15 and G.S. § 90-270.16:

John Cassidy, Ph.D., Respondent – CONSENT ORDER was approved on April 18, 2013. Board accepted and signed Consent Order; Respondent admits that the conduct described in constitutes violations of N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 90-270.15(a)(6), (a)(10), (a)(11), (a)(20) and (a)(21) of the North Carolina Psychology Practice Act, and Standards 3.04, 3.05(a), 3.08 and 10.05 of the Ethical Principles of Psychologist and Code of Conduct (American Psychological Association 2002). Respondent’s license is immediately REVOKED. He shall not apply for re-licensure in NC and must remit $300.00 in costs.

Mawiyah Kambon, Ph.D., Respondent - CONSENT ORDER was approved and signed in April 18, 2013. Dr. Kambon admits that the conduct described constitutes violations of N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-270.15(a)(7) of the North Carolina Psychology Practice Act, and 21 N.C.A.C. 54 .2104 (f) and (i). Dr. Kambon’s license is REPRIMANDED and she is ordered to successfully complete tutorials; submit proper documentation establishing that she has completed all of the required continuing education hours with her application for the 2014-2016 and the 2016-2018 biennial licensure renewal periods; and is assessed $300.00 in costs.

Tommy K. Seedorf, M.S., Petitioner – A hearing was held on January 17, 2013, following which the Board determined to DENY Petitioner’s application for licensure at the Licensed Psychological Associate level. The FINAL DECISION was executed on February 5, 2013.

James Snyder, Ph.D., Respondent – CONSENT ORDER was approved on November 8, 2012, and executed on November 27, 2012, upon receipt of the signed original. Respondent acknowledges that the described conduct constitutes violations of N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 90-270.15(a)(10) (unprofessional conduct) and 90-270.15(a)(17) of the North Carolina Psychology
Practice Act, and Standard 3.05(a) (multiple relationships) and Standard 6.01 (records) of the Ethical Principles of Psychologist and Code of Conduct (American Psychological Association 2002). Respondent admits no wrongdoing, and nothing in the CONSENT ORDER constitutes an admission by Respondent. Respondent’s license is REPRIMANDED; he must successfully complete tutorials, comply with conditions regarding supervision, and remit $300.00 in costs.

David Trayford, M.A., Respondent – CONSENT ORDER was approved on July 19, 2012. The Board contends that, at a hearing on April 25-26, 2012, it proved that Respondent’s conduct in this matter constitutes violations of N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 90-270.15(a)(10), (a)(11), (a)(13), (a)(14) & (a)(15) of the North Carolina Psychology Practice Act, and Standards 3.04, 9.01(a) & (b), 9.02(a) & (b), 9.08 (a) & (b), and 9.10 of the Ethical Principles of Psychologist and Code of Conduct (American Psychological Association 2002). Respondent does not admit to any violations in his psychological evaluation of client X, and he does not admit to any errors by his supervisor. Respondent’s license is SUSPENDED, beginning 14 days following the execution of the CONSENT ORDER. The suspension shall remain in effect until Respondent receives Board approval to resume the practice of psychology following his successful completion of education set forth in the CONSENT ORDER. Respondent’s supervision at Level 3 is rescinded. After successful completion of the conditions set forth in the CONSENT ORDER, the suspension of Respondent’s license shall be lifted, and he may practice psychology under the conditions set forth in the CONSENT ORDER. Respondent must remit $300.00 in costs.

Deborah C. Tyler, Ph.D., Petitioner – CONSENT ORDER was approved on January 16, 2013. Petitioner admits that the described conduct violates N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-270.15(a)(6) of the North Carolina Psychology Practice Act. Petitioner’s applications for licensure and health services certification at the Licensed Psychologist level are approved for examination for licensure. Upon licensure, Petitioner may practice psychology in North Carolina under specified CONDITIONS. Upon compliance with all conditions, she can be released from the conditions. Further, Petitioner must remit $300.00 in costs.

Jennifer M. Wilson, Ph.D., Petitioner – A hearing was held on January 17, 2013, following which the Board determined to APPROVE Petitioner’s applications for licensure at the Licensed Psychologist level and certification as a Health Services Provider Psychologist. The FINAL DECISION was executed on February 4, 2013.

JoAnne Woodard, Ph.D., Respondent – CONSENT ORDER was approved and signed in April 18, 2013. Dr. Woodard admits that the conduct described constitutes violations of N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90-270.15(a)(7) of the North Carolina Psychology Practice Act, and 21 N.C.A.C. 54 .2104 (f) and (i). Dr. Woodard’s license is REPRIMANDED and she is ordered to successfully complete tutorials; submit proper documentation establishing that she has completed all of the required continuing education hours with her application for the 2014-2016 and the 2016-2018 biennial licensure renewal periods; and is assessed $300.00 in costs.
